PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant
 To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1

The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substances or any paraphernalia related to such substances'.

On June 10, 2010, the offender tested positive for amphetamines and methamphetamine.

The offender has violated the mandatory supervision condition which states As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay restitution in the amount of $101,978 to the Social Security Administration; it shall be paid in the following manner: monthly installments of no less than $100."

The offender was released from custody on May 22, 2009, and actively supervised since April 1, 2010. She has not made a single payment toward restitution.

The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'You shall reside for a period of 6 months in a community corrections center, halfway house or similar residential facility and shall observe all the rules of that facility. You shall be eligible for weekend privileges. You shall pay subsistence as required by the program.'

On June 10, 2010, the offender provided a urine sample to staff at Toler House, a community corrections center that tested positive for amphetamines and methamphetamine. As a result, on June 18, 2010, she was discharged from the community corrections center.

The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.'

The defendant was released from the custody of the State of Florida on May 22, 2009, at which time she returned to New Jersey. She settled in Jersey City, New Jersey and failed to notify the United States Probation Office in the District of New Jersey of her release.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
